Scholarship Assistance

All qualified musicians may participate regardless of financial circumstances. Partial or full tuition waiver Scholarships are available upon the submission of a Scholarship application. All musicians must pay $25; however, the balance of the tuition may be waived upon submission and approval of a tuition waiver application.

- Attached is the $25 tuition fee for _____ (musician) with the completed tuition scholarship form.

Please contact the YSSO to request the Scholarship application (ysso@mind.net or 541-858-8859). Limited assistance also may be available to current YSSO musicians to help defray a portion of the cost of private lessons with experienced teaching professionals during the fall, winter and spring terms. Funding, if available, is awarded based on review of the information provided in the application.

Contribute to the Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon

Revenue from tuition helps underwrite fees for professional conductors and coaches who maintain the YSSO organization's high artistic standards and performance levels, venue/facility fees, music, insurance and other expenses. Tuition, however, is only one revenue source upon which the YSSO organization depends. Approximately 20-25 percent of annual revenue comes from annual gifts and contributions made by individuals. Please consider renewing a membership, increasing a gift, giving a gift to honor a friend or family member, or becoming a new member.
