The Carpenter Foundation, City of Ashland, Dorothy F. Sherman Music Education Fund for Children of The Oregon Community Foundation, Avista and U.S. Bank have provided concert season funding. YSSO initiatives, programs and performances are supported by annual contributions from individuals and businesses, as well as through grants from the Collins Foundation, Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation, Jackson County Cultural Coalition/Oregon Cultural Trust, The Oregon Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation and the Pacific Power Foundation. This project is supported in part by the Oregon Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

The Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing exceptional performance and training opportunities for young people under the leadership of professional conductors and music coaches and to fostering a lifelong appreciation of classical music and the arts.
